

TELEGRAPHIC NOTES.

CRIPPLE CREEK, Colo., June 11.—Peace now reigns at Cripple Creek and several of the mines will begin work this week. The Governor will not allow more than twenty-five of the strikers arrested at one time and he was explicit in his statements that his pets should be tenderly cared for. The deputies are withdrawing. Commissioner Boynton returned to Colorado Springs today. The force has been removed from the Independence mine. It is learned that the mines will start up on a small scale for the present. Water has accumulated in most of them, and this will have to be taken out before active work can be started.

DENVER, Colo., June 11.—It has been decided by Sheriff Borchert that no more Cereyites will be allowed to enter Denver under penalty of arrest and imprisonment for vagrancy. Until the commonwealth movement has subsided, special deputies will board incoming trains and patrol all public highways leading into the city, and no one unable to give a satisfactory account of himself will be permitted to pass the boundary line. The action is made necessary by the fact that Denver's extreme generosity has been heretofore to several thousand commonwealthers who are now headed this way.

MINNEAPOLIS, Minn., June 11.—An Egan, S. D., special says that a valuable prehistoric find is reported in a mound at that point. A tomb has been uncovered lined with cement. In the tomb's compartments were twenty-two male skeletons averaging eight feet in height.

CORRY ISLAND, N. Y., June 11.—Mile. Beatrice, the young lion tamer who was bitten by a lion yesterday, has grown very much worse. The wound has begun to inflame rapidly, and there are symptoms of lockjaw.

OMAHA, Neb., June 11.—The Missouri continues to rise and it may seek its old channel. The positive danger line is eighteen feet, and the stage of the water is something over fourteen feet.

CHICAGO, June 10.—Half a million is the estimated loss by fire which broke out at a late hour to-night in a coal yard. Eighteen houses were burned to death and one man is reported missing. The flames spread to an Italian saloon and consumed it, a butcher shop and several dwellings. One of Armour's large wholesale meat markets was also destroyed.

WASHINGTON, June 10.—Coxey, Browne and Jones were released from jail this morning. They were met at the door of the jail by Oklahoma Sam, driving four horses attached to Coxey's phaeton. The four proceeded to the National hotel, where they shook hands with the clerk and a few friends who happened to be present. After spending a quarter of an hour in the hotel, they started for the Coxey camp.

WINNIPEG, June 10.—An accident occurred on the Canadian Pacific to the west bound express, due here to-day, about fifteen miles west of Fort William. The trestle bridge across the Mattawa river had been partially burned when the train reached the center of the structure it gave way and engine and four cars were thrown into the river. Messenger Brown of Toronto is missing and the number reported missing is five.

UNIONTOWNS, Pa., June 10.—The result of a battle this morning between armed deputies and a party of strikers, is that one of the strikers was killed outright and three wounded. There were six deputies on one side and a mob of strikers on the other. The testimony is to the effect that the mob compelled the deputies to fire on them after the strikers had compelled them to retreat and had fired several shots at them.

SAN FRANCISCO, June 9.—The sentence of imprisonment for life was passed on Mrs. Jane Shattuck today, for the murder of Harry G. Peole, a well-known young man, about four months since.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., June 10.—A general alarm of fire was sent in from the corner of Thirteenth and Hickory streets at five o'clock this afternoon. The fire was raging in the center of the building owned and occupied by the Keystone Implement Company. The efforts of the firemen to keep the fire confined to that building, was lost as it had been burning some time before the department arrived. The immense stock of paints and oils in the Keystone building fed the flames which leaped a hundred feet into the air, and were quickly communicated to other buildings. Several firemen were severely injured by falling walls. The losses will aggregate about $310,000. The origin of the fire is unknown.

PHOENIX, Ariz., June 9.—A report has been received here that the business portion of Globe, Ariz., has been reduced to ashes from a fire which started in the old dominion store. The total loss will not be less than $20,000.

CAIRO, Ill., June 9.—The march of Kelly's army is to be resumed from LaSalle to Washington. Captain Beatty of Paducah will send down his steamboat and a barge to a point in Illinois opposite Paducah. The Commonwealthers received nine wagon loads of provisions from the citizens of Cairo during their stay there.

NEW YORK, June 9.—Cyrus W. Field, son of the late Cyrus W. Field, died this afternoon, at the age of thirty-five.

WAGGONER, I. T., June 9.—A stagelod of passengers en route from Tuleque to Fort Gibson, was robbed and a very sensational tragedy occurred. A desperate Cherokee character named Levi Sanders was sitting on the front seat with the driver when he suddenly drew a pistol and shot the driver in the side, ordering him to hold up. He then made the passengers get out and relieved them of $70 and some jewelry. The robber then left going towards Tuleque and in his course he killed three other people but was finally captured and shot to pieces.

VANCOUVER, B. C., June 9.—Reports received from the interior state that fully fifteen thousand people are homeless and the Fraser river is still slowly rising. Burglars and thieves have begun to ravage the flooded districts and yesterday a safe was stolen from the Moodyville Mill Company, but the burglars had bad luck, they intended to carry the safe to the woods and blow it open but their boat capsized and the safe and boat were found in the flooded flats.

DUBUQUE, Ia., June 9.—An engine spark in the Lesur lumber yards was the cause of the most destructive fire that ever visited Dubuque. It burned for a width of three square miles. Mills, factories, warehouses and immense piles of lumber were reduced to ashes, leaving twelve acres of ruins. Fully 10,000,000 feet of lumber was burned besides the buildings, causing a total loss of $600,000, and the insurance aggregates $350,000.

WHEELING, W. Va., June 8.—Five hundred miners from Moundsville and Glenville are marching to the assistance of the rioters Bogg's run, where the Baltimore & Ohio trains are blocked. If the Ohio militia starts trains on the Ohio side, the miners will transfer operations to the West Virginia side.

DENVER, Colo., June 7.—John Shorten, editor of the Cripple Creek Herald, published in the interest of the miners, was arrested several days ago and arrived here today. He tells sensational stories of the treatment that he and others received from the brutal deputies. The hardest case of all was that of a man named Sullivan, who got a telegram from Cripple Creek telling him that his wife was dying and asking him to go to Leadville immediately. This telegram was seen by the editor of the Herald, and when they were captured Sullivan showed the deputies the sudden summons, but they refused to liberate him and would not even allow him to communicate with his dying wife or family.

TACOMA, Wash., June 7.—The damage done by floods throughout the northwest is being estimated by railroad men and others who have placed the loss in the neighborhood of $5,000,000. The great volume of water is yet to be felt in the lower Fraser valley, which it will not reach for another day. As further details of the cloudburst are received, the earlier reports of receding waters at Lytton and other points of the river are discredited. However it is not believed the lower river will rise much higher.

A young crank called at the White House to-day and announced that his purpose was to convert President Cleveland to the ways of righteousness. This was the third time he had been at the White House, and the watchman became alarmed and called for the police patrol. He was then transferred to the third precinct station, where he was held for examination. He is a converted Jew, and has been delivering sermons on the street corners.

WASHINGTON, June 7.—The attention of the Senate was occupied until the tariff bill was taken up to-day, by the action of the Attorney-General in claiming $15,000,000 from the estate of the late Leland Stanford. Senator Hoar said that the question of extinguishing and putting this claim to rest, should be at once decided. He stated that "If the Government had a claim of $15,000,000, that was only twenty cents apiece for the inhabitants of the United States, to whom Mr. Stanford had bequeathed his large estate, and it ought not to embarrass the remaining years of his widow and cripple and perhaps destroy the great gift he had made for the benefit of the poor by seeking to press it."

On complaint of United States Marshal Humphrey, Dan O'Keefe was tried before Justice Jewett last Friday, charged with burglarizing the postoffice at Candelaria. United States District Attorney Jones appeared for the prosecution. P. M. Bowler defended O'Keefe. After hearing the evidence and the arguments, Justice Jewett dismissed the case.

The report that the fruit crop of Lassen was entirely ruined by frost was somewhat exaggerated, and it is claimed by the papers as well as from other sources, that while the crop will not be of wonderful magnitude still there will be enough to supply the home market and some to spare.—Reno Gazette.

The Queen's Jubilee Bonnet. The Duchess of Bedford lately told a girls' needlework society in Mile End that the bonnet which the queen wore at the jubilee service was practically made by the Princess of Wales.

"It was sent home," said her grace, "looking heavy and ugly. Nobody dared return it to the milliner without the queen's orders, and nobody liked to ask her majesty for such instructions. So the ladies in waiting showed it to the Princess of Wales, knowing how clever she is in all such matters, and her royal highness with her own hands altered it and twisted it till it became the extremely becoming and tasteful head-dress which we all admired on that memorable occasion. Everybody who saw it thought that the queen had never had a prettier bonnet, but how it came to be so pretty is news of today."—London Tit-Bits.

A "Sulky" Tea Set. We are indebted to our English cousins for the old designation of a miniature tea service. In England a "sulky" set is an infinitesimal teapot, creamer and sugar bowl, with as tiny an accompanying cup and saucer intended for use when a sip of tea is required. A "sulky" exchange which is a circle of linen embroidered in some pretty design, that of the service, if possible, the edge finished in scallops. An interlining pad of heavy cotton flannel bound with ribbon is lightly tucked to the mat, so that it may be removed for laundering purposes, and the whole is thrown over the service in carrying it through the house to the bedside of the invalid or "sulky" lounge, who may not or will not drink tea on tete-a-tete.—Philadelphia Press.

According to French divorce statistics the most unhappy period of marriage is from the fifth to the tenth year. After that the figures drop very rapidly.

An editor wrote a ballroom puff, saying, "her dainty feet were encased in shoes that might be taken for fairy boots," but the blundering compositor made it read, "her dirty feet were encased in shoes that might have been taken for fairy boots."

Cherries are leaving San Jose, Cal., for the East with a rush, eighteen carloads, amounting to 421,700 pounds having gone east this week. The total fruit shipments were 1,220,000 pounds. Canners are not packing cherries this year and the bulk will go East where good prices are secured.

The steamer "Messenger," a pioneer Puget Sound steamer, built in 1876 and formerly operated between Tacoma, Olympia and Port Townsend, was burned at Tacoma recently. The steamer evidently was set on fire, as her fires had been out since eight o'clock the evening before. The crew barely escaped with their lives.

A certain gentleman had invited some friends to dinner, and as the colored servant entered the room he accidentally dropped a platter which held a turkey. "My friends," said the gentleman in the most impressive tone, "never in my life have I witnessed an event so fraught with disaster in the various nations of the globe. In this calamity we see the downfall of Turkey, the upsetting of Greece, the destruction of China and the humiliation of Africa."

The country bride and bridegroom, with clothing crackling new, walked lovingly hand in hand down the broad hotel dining room, two souls with but a single thought, and blindly oblivious to all things but each other in this great, happy earth of ours. Almost crowding on one chair, he fondly held her as the parent bird her little chick. "Darling," he murmuringly chuckled, "shall I skin yer a pertater?" "No, deary," she gurgled, "I have one already skun."—Washington Post.

A wicked story is told about two partners who respected each other business ability, but who hated cordially. To one of them came a fairy saying that he could have any boon he desired, and whatever he had his partner should have in double portion. Naturally his first wish was for a barrel of money. "All right," said the fairy, "but your partner will get two barrels on that wish." "Stop a little," said the first. "Perhaps you'd better not give me a barrel of money. I'd rather you would make me totally blind in one eye."—Ex.
